

kpe1965.com

HOME

ON-AIR

LISTEN

EVENTS

NEWS JUNKIES

SEARCH

VIDEO

FACEBOOK

TWITTER

LISTEN!

Handel On

NOTEWORTHY: CANDIDATE SERIES

PICK EM

TAILGATE

KPEL APP

LEGAL AUTHORITY

WINGIN' IT WEDNESDAY

CRIME

GAS PRICES

FINANCIAL ADVISOR

FEATURED

GLASS HALF FULL CENTANNI

LOUISIANA TO CELEBRATE WORLD PEACE DAY

BERNADETTE LEE | September 24, 2019

Getty Images

SHARE ON TWITTER

SHARE ON FACEBOOK

Citizens, government officials, and community groups will gather at Louisiana's State Capitol this Sunday, September 29 to celebrate World Peace Day.

Louisiana's celebration of World Peace Day is an annual event that was started in Louisiana in 1998, and it has been led by young people from across the state.

The event is free and open to the public.

-ADVERTISEMENT-

[ ]

RECOMMENDED

It's Now Pretty Clear: Why Ty Pennington Disappeared

Details About Prince William & Rose Hanbury's Affair Revealed

Musical presentations will take place along with art exhibits, essay and what is called other expressions of how people perceive peace.

Presentations for the following people will be made on Sunday:

- Legislative Youth Advisory Council President Anjali Pellegrin
- Dideolu Daniel, LSU International Student Association President
- Livingston Parish Children's Chorale
- Dancers from the Chosen Academy of Dance in Baton Rouge
- Baton Rouge Mayor Sharon Weston-Broome
- State Senator Regina Barrow

One of the highlights of Sunday's event will be a prayer for peace in multiple languages along with an interfaith candle lighting ceremony.