Proclamation

WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana recognizes the need to address violence in our society, including domestic violence in communities and violence among nations and cultures, in order for the people of Louisiana and the rest of the world to benefit; and

WHEREAS, in a general way, there is a universal desire of all people for peace; peace in families, peace in communities, peace among nations, and peace within the human heart; and

WHEREAS, people from all walks of life, whether in labor, management, or government, have been working against violence and for peace; and

WHEREAS, to this end, the Institute of All Nations, Inc. (IAN), a private, nonprofit corporations, permanently chartered by the regents of the state of New York, under the co-chairmanship of former United States Supreme court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg and former U.N. Ambassador Arthur S. Lall, with Louisianian Professor Rama C. Mochanty as general secretary, adopted a resolution that World Peace Day be observed internationally each October 1, beginning in 1998; and

WHEREAS, the continuing observance of this day in Louisiana is designed is to bring mass awareness of and increased support against violence and for peace workers, peace makers, and peace organizations that have worked and continue to work to end violence, and to bring greater peace and well-being to communities, families, and individuals in Louisiana, in particular, and the world in general; and

WHEREAS, people, including the future leaders, the youth and the children of Louisiana, communities, organizations, and institutions will come together in marches, workshops, conferences, and conventions to create mass awareness against violence and in support of caring, cooperation, peace, and harmony; and to honor those who have worked and continue to work to this end

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathleen Babineaux Blanco, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim October 1, 2005, as in the State of Louisiana to recognize and encourage continuing quality work against violence in this state and every where, and I urge all citizens and all community organizations to join in this observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Louisiana, at the Capitol, in the City of Baton Rouge, on this the 11th day of July
A. D., 2005
